GLOBAL AESTHETIC CENTRE

"For 15 years we have been telling the story of how global trends research translates into paint colours for the home. The story begins at our global aesthetic centre – the heart of our research process."

HELEEN VAN GENT,
CREATIVE DIRECTOR,
AKZONOBEL AESTHETIC CENTRE

Each year, at the AkzoNobel Global Aesthetic Centre in the Netherlands, we draw on extensive research to identify the Dulux Colour of the Year - a definitive colour that matches the mood of the moment. We then use this to create colour palettes that will help transform people's living spaces into homes that respond to their needs. The research has indicated that people around the world are experiencing a renewed sense of optimism and purpose. There's a desire to reach out, engage with others, to make things better and 'be the change'. People are ready to seize the moment.

off whites

Rooms painted with different shades of whites create an atmosphere of relaxation and peace. They can make our rooms feel brighter, bigger and spacious. Off-whites are a perfect choice for a classic, timeless décor. They can be used all around the house and are apt for areas with less daylight. If need be, a break can be given by using slightly warmer shades of whites for the feature wall.

TAKE AWAY TIP

We suggest you brighten up the décor by throwing colourful cushions, rugs and hand painted furniture. Exteriors, when painted with off whites, appear much bigger and give a sense of wholesomeness.

warm neutrals

A warm neutral backdrop creates a welcoming interior when mixed with rough-hewn wooden elements, wooden floorings, and brushed velvets. No matter what your decorating style is, neutrals provide a perfect backdrop and keep your space from appearing too busy. Add them in layers or with pops of color to create visual depth and interest.

TAKE AWAY TIP

Being a versatile hue, it is one of the most widely used colour for exteriors. When paired with terracotta roofs, they can give a colonial feel to your home.

cool neutrals

Neutrals invoke a sense of visual calmness. They relax your mind and create a spa-like atmosphere. When painting your bedroom with cool neutrals, colours like Fostoria Glass and Veil connect spaces and give a sense of continuity. Break them with a bright blue or a tangerine orange.

TAKE AWAY TIP

Exteriors painted with cool neutrals evoke a sense of decorum, elegance, and heritage. To give your home a nature inspired look, use neutrals with undertones of blues and greens.

enlivening yellows

Yellow represents positivity and happiness. It is the color of flowers, lemons and sunshine. Use a bolder yellow like Butterscotch Tempest to highlight an area or a soft yellow like Champagne Sparkle to make a small space appear bigger. A perfect choice for all the spaces, yellow is often used for exteriors. When paired with a terracotta roof, it looks rustic and chic, whereas for homes with simple lines and minimalist details, Coconut and Butterfield work perfectly when paired with crisp and white accents.

TAKE AWAY TIP

Feeling creative? Instead of painting the entire wall in a dark colour, paint one big circle in bright yellow.

warming orange

Orange is a perfect combination of the energy of red and the happiness of yellow. It can bring a lot of fun and excitement to whatever space it is used in. Owing to its quality of standing out, colours like Sunrise Orange and Orange Pekoe are often used for exterior walls where focus is the primary objective.

TAKE AWAY TIP

A wall of this colour in the living room will become the centerpiece of your home. When combined with browns, orange takes a sophisticated turn, whereas when coupled with crisp whites it suddenly becomes fresh and modern.

rich reds

Red is bold, beautiful and passionate. A splash of red brings energy to your living room. Even corners that otherwise would have gone unnoticed can be brought alive with rich reds. Red can feel contemporary, traditional, rustic or timeless, depending on the shade and context. A touch of red can warm up a cool blue-and-white room, or add drama when used in a small space like a powder room.

TAKE AWAY TIP

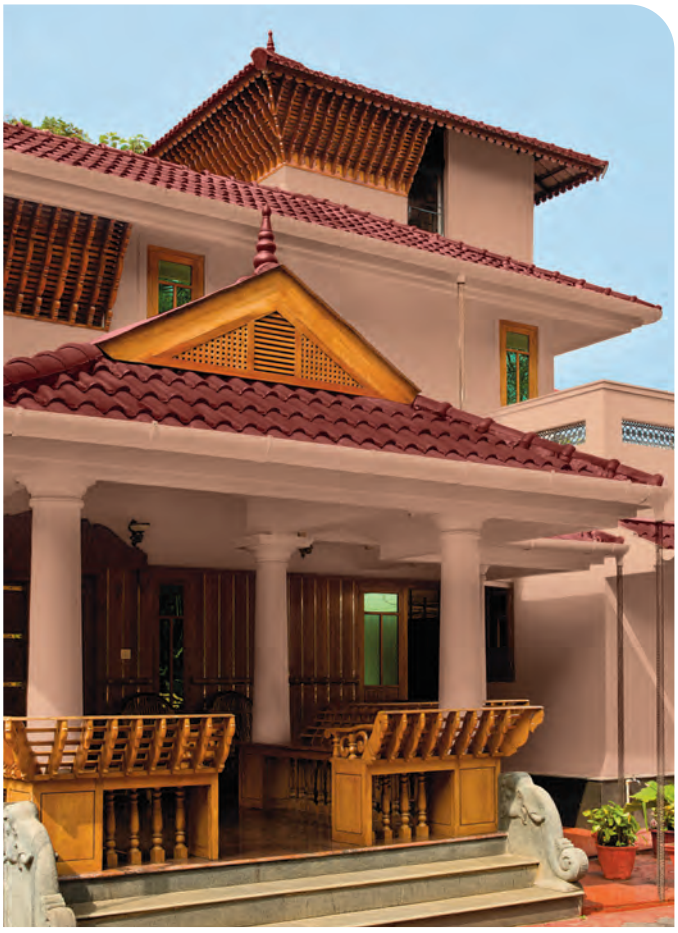

Red plays an important role in celebrations, so when used in a traditional space, red can look very festive and playful too. When considering reds for exteriors, use bold and punchy reds but ensure to keep them in small doses.

pretty pinks

Different pinks can give off different vibes. A lighter pink when used can make space look innocent, delicate and tranquil, whereas a more matured pink like magenta can lend grace and elegance. When combined with greys and blacks, pink tends to absorb their starkness and balance the whole décor.

TAKE AWAY TIP

When used in exteriors, pinks bring a lot of stability to the whole architecture and merge well with the surroundings. Use both lighter and darker shades to avoid monotony.

royal purple

Purple is known to be the colour of royalty; it symbolizes power, nobility, luxury and ambition.

It is a great option if you want to give a rich feel to your interiors or exteriors. The lighter purples like lavenders and lilacs create a pleasant and peaceful vibe when used in bedrooms and spaces of relaxation.

TAKE AWAY TIP

Purple absorbs light hence is good for large open exteriors and big rooms.

harmonious blue

The colour of the sky, blue is cited globally as the most popular colour. Blue is associated with adventure, cleanliness, and optimism. No wonder this cooling, serene colour makes its way into many homes. It is also believed to be the perfect colour for a room where mental tasks are performed, such as studies or libraries.

TAKE AWAY TIP

While bright blues bring energy to a room, shades of blues are also suggested for a clean and modern looking exteriors.

natural greens

The most soothing hue to the human eye, green lends both personality and peacefulness to any space it encompasses. If you need a little more zen in your life, this is the colour for you.

Green offers a wide palette of hues, ranging from vibrant yellow-green of a spring leaf to subtle grey-green, olive, and moss colours.

TAKE AWAY TIP

While painting exteriors, earthy greens blend well with both natural woodsy settings as well as with concrete city settings.

Toddlers' to TEENS' BEDROOMS

Colours shown in all images may vary from actual paint colour due to lighting in photographs and printing

Kids are fickle creatures that live in the here and now. Their interests are constantly changing and they conveniently forget about cleaning up their creative mess. Let's give them the freedom to learn, live and play in rooms that grow with them, supporting them through their varying interests.

With Dulux Super Clean, you are able to take that moment and admire your toddler's crayon and lipstick masterpiece, or marvel at how your teenager managed to fling mud that high up on the wall. Being able to simply wipe away the stress allows you to find the brighter side in even the messiest situations.

Effect of Colour in a room

Colours can change the way a space makes you feel. They can affect the perception of size, the play of light and the dimensions of the room. Create new shapes, new personalities for your living space with the smart use of colour.

Make your room look lighter

A lighter floor and ceiling with a light rear wall, combined with darker side walls make a space look higher.

Make your room look higher with stripes

Create an illusion of height by using stripes on the side walls.

Make your room look lower

Make your room look lower by painting the ceiling in a darker colour.

Make your room look wider

A lighter floor and ceiling with darker walls makes the room look wider.

Colours shown in all images may vary from actual paint colour due to lighting in photographs and printing

Make your room look lower and wider

Emphasize length

Make your room look deeper by painting horizontal stripes on the walls.

Create stability

Painting the lower half of the walls lends stability in the room.

Make your room look cosy

Painting both the ceiling and the walls creates a cosy and intimate space.
